Maldivian Resumes seasonal Flights between Hanimaadhoo International Airport and Trivandrum

Maldivian, the flag carrier of the Maldives, is pleased to announce the resumption of its services between Hanimaadhoo International Airport and Trivandrum, India, starting from April 12th April 2024. Restoring this strategic flight further solidifies Maldivian's commitment to connecting the Maldivian northern territory with key regional destinations, enhancing travel options for passengers in the north, and promoting cultural and economic exchange between the two nations.

Commenting on the launch of the new destination, Mr. Ibrahim Iyas, Managing Director of Maldivian, noted the significance of the relaunch of this route. "This route greatly benefits our customers and the economy of the northern area of the Maldives. It reflects our commitment to improve air connectivity in the north region which will boost to the travel trade and support the socioeconomic growth of the Maldives. We would like to thank all the authorities and partners involved for supporting and making this new route possible, with special acknowledgement to the Regional Airports Company Limited (RACL)".

The service resumption from Hanimaadhoo to Trivandrum represents an exciting milestone for both Maldivian and the travelers seeking seamless connectivity between the Maldives and South India.
